Chairman's report :-

Good evening all,

Firstly, thank you all for your continued commitment and attendance to the Parish Council. It is sometimes a thankless task but I really feel that we have a good mix of views and generally agree on most things.

Sadly Fiona resigned recently after twenty odd years of service to the Council, thankfully we have Robert as her replacement and I look forward to his views on future issues.

My thanks to Steve for his continued support in his role as Vice Chairman. He really does make everything easier for me. Also my thanks to Jacqui, who quietly behind the scenes runs the Council like a Swiss clock and keeps me on my toes!

Unfortunately we still have the same issues in the village as previous years but I do feel we make some progress and will keep striving to encourage residents to love the beautiful area we live in.

I feel we have had some success with planning this year and hope that will continue.

Lastly I would like to say that I have, as always enjoyed our meetings throughout the year and if you so wish, will stand for re-election as Chairman for the coming year.
